

ALAMANCE COUNTY BEEKEEPERS

May 2007

I'm going to keep this one short and sweet. We have several great articles attached, so I will just provide you with the announcements this month.

Meeting: Our May Meeting will be on the 17th at 6:30 pm at Western Charcoal Steakhouse. Bill Waddell will present Selling Honey and Promoting Beekeeping. Thanks to Don Moore for his ramblings and the poem.

Announcements:

Please contribute to the Honey bee exhibit at the NC Zoo if you haven't already. Contact Don Moore for more information.

The Matthews Farmers Market (located in South Charlotte) is looking for someone to sell honey. They are open on Saturday mornings. They are an organic friendly market and a bit picky about who is allowed to sell. If you are interested you can contact Richard Flanagan of the Mecklenburg County Beekeepers for more information. His phone is 704-532-5767 or email him at rhfjr81@aol.com.

Our June meeting will be our annual pot luck at the Coon Club. We will meet on June 23 at 4 pm at the Stoney Creek Coon Club. We will have a surprise presentation by Bill Sheppard, which I am sure will be entertaining as well as educational. Please bring some food to share with your fellow beekeepers. Directions will be included in the newsletter. Donna Devanney will provide the article.
